

ARTSY ADVENTURE

ART LEAGUE OF OCEAN CITY

Visit the Ocean City Center for the Arts. Marvel at their 2 story gallery, art library, pottery studio, classrooms and 5 working artist studios

OCEAN CITY LIFE-SAVING STATION MUSEUM

Experience the nostalgia of Worcester County's 9 historical sites. Begin at the Ocean City Life Saving Museum on the south end of the Boardwalk at the Ocean City inlet. Learn how OC actually came to be one of the premiere family resorts in the country. Be sure to check out the Sands from Around the World and the Aquarium!

OCEAN CITY PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Conveniently located in the Roland E. Powell Convention Center, the new Performing Arts Center is taking Ocean City arts and entertainment to the next level. Enjoy a wide range of events from musicals and summer concerts to dance performances and children's theater. In this elegant 1200-seat venue, every guest feels like part of the show.

BERLIN: AMERICA'S COOLEST SMALL TOWN

Venture just 8 miles west, and visit historic Berlin, MD, voted America's Coolest Small Town in 2015. Stroll the many antique and boutique shops, and be sure to take in the town's historical landmarks, The Atlantic Hotel, and the Calvin B. Taylor museum, all on Main St.

DELMARVA DISCOVERY CENTER

Venture a little further south to Pocomoke City, MD on Rt. 113 to Rt. 13 South to visit the Discovery Center, on the Eastern Shore, famous for its swimming otters and history galore!

WARD MUSEUM OF WILDFOWL ART

Head west on Rt. 50 approx. 27 miles to the Ward Museum of Wildfowl Art. This is the most expansive collection of Wildfowl Carvings in the world and it's just 27 miles west of the beach!